Hello Canny,

This letter is to confirm that you have satisfied the criteria for certification by HRPAs as set out in the by-laws of the Association. Pursuant to the Registered Human Resources Professionals Act, 2013, you now have the privilege of using the designation "Certified Human Resources Professional" and of using the initials "CHRP" after your name. Congratulations!

Your category of membership will be 'CHRP Member' and, as a CHRP designate, you have additional rights and privileges. You have the right to vote in HRPAs Board elections, you may stand for election to HRPAs Board of Directors, and you are now eligible to participate in volunteer opportunities that are only open to CHRPs.

I have updated our database to show that you were granted the CHRP. Your category of membership will be 'CHRP Member.' Although this email serves as official confirmation that you have satisfied the criteria for certification by HRPAs, you will also be issued a certificate to that effect. The HRPAs issues certificates four times per year. You will be added to the list to receive a certificate during the next issuance. For more information on designation certificates, please review the Designation Certificates section of the HRPAs website.

And finally, the right and privilege of using the CHRP is contingent upon remaining a member in good standing with HRPAs and meeting the continuing professional development (CPD) requirement. To meet this requirement, you will need to report to HRPAs your ongoing participation in professional development activities. The CPD requirement is a triennial one which means that the deadline for your first submission of your CPD Log is May 31, 2022. Your CPD period is October 22, 2018 (June 1, 2018) to May 31, 2022. Please review the Continuing Professional Development section of HRPAs website for more information.

Once again, on behalf of HRPAs, I offer you my sincere congratulations on your accomplishment. Best wishes for continued success in your human resources career. If you have further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Arianne Andres
